County Employees

MAY 26th, 2021

Season's Conference Center

Does your job involve dealing with potentially difficult people? Do you find yourself in situations where encounters may become tense? Would you like to be able to safely and efficiently gain voluntary compliance with your requests? This is the class for you. There is no charge, as the Smithville Charitable Foundation has generously provided a grant to the Brown County Health Department to bring this class to our area. This class is free to any and all County employees. This class will increase workplace safety by decreasing the chance of workplace violence and will teach you how to defuse verbal conflict.

Our instructor is Mike "Ziggy" Siegfried, a dynamic speaker who spent 26 years working as a full-time peace officer prior to becoming the COO of the Verbal Judo Institute. Mike is a Court recognized use-of-force expert, and a published author in Police Magazine, the FBI National Academy Associate Magazine, Police Recruit Magazine and Campus Security Magazine.
